Company Overview

Raimonde Drilling Corporation has been providing drilling services since 1971. Drilling and sampling services include vertical and angle drilling into soil and bedrock formations. These services are for a wide variety of purposes, from mineral exploration, environmental investigations, geotechnical engineering, to offshore drilling. Our vast amount of experience combined with the versatility of our equipment allow RDC to engage in projects across the country. Furthermore, utilization of drilled holes by the installation of instrumentation or monitoring wells allows maximum use of project funding.
